TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Miss Maria Kanellopoulou served as President of the Board of Directors of the Societas Quaerens de Disciplina Iuris Prudentiae, the non-profit student Society that publishes the Athens Law Review, from January, 1988 until May, 1989. She was also a member of the editorial team of the Law Review from October, 1987 and remains so till today.

As President of the Board she was responsible for all affairs relating to the direction of the Societas and, among other responsibilities, the organisation of lectures, social activities and promotional events in the Athens Law School with the purpose of supplementing similar services offered by the University. As member of the editorial team she is responsible for selecting, correcting and proofing all articles that the chief editor assigns to her.

In the time we have known Miss Kanellopoulou she has proven to be both reliable and accurate in any task she undertook, and these, coupled with her very high academic standard were assets to our Law Review.

We are certain that Miss Kanellopoulou will be as successful and useful in any activity she will undertake as she was in the running of the Societas. We also take this opportunity to extend her our thanks and our wishes for her career.

On behalf of the Board
The Secretary
